The Staff Gives You . . .

*In the hills of old Virginny,
Nestled 'neath the sky so blue
Stands our dear old Alma Mater,
Ever faithful, ever true.*

*Symbol of our times together
Times of days now long gone by,
Symbol of our faithful friendships,
Friendships that will never die.*

*May God bless us on life's way,
And our friends both far and near,
And God bless our Alma Mater—
Falls Church High, we love so dear.*

FALLS CHURCH HIGH SCHOOL
FALLS CHURCH, VIRGINIA

May 1950

Dear Graduate of 1950:

I know that this time of graduation brings you mixed feelings. There is the abiding sense of satisfaction. Twelve long years of work and study are behind you. You have a happy pride of accomplishment in having passed so well your sixteen or more credit units.

But even though school days are behind you, you do not feel carefree. Here you stand a tiptoe peering into the realm of things yet to be, and you have some misgivings about this freedom from home and school supervision, once so eagerly awaited. Security and protection are passing and henceforth you will be more largely on your own responsibility. Soon you will be expected to earn your own way in life and to make your own decisions.

Then too, your heart is heavy in saying goodbye to these warm friends of Falls Church High. Yes, this is a sad time as well as a happy time.

I congratulate you on subscribing to this Jaguar. As the years go by, you will pore over it many times, refreshing your memory of old friends and living again events and accomplishments of your school days. Keep this book carefully. You are going to enjoy it even more when you are thirty than you do now at eighteen.

As you leave, you carry with you the affection and good wishes of students and faculty. Please come back and visit school when you can. We shall never forget you.

Sincerely,

W. S. Rumbough

DEDICATION

GENERAL WILLIAM S. RUMBOUGH

We, the students of Falls Church High School, dedicate the 1950 volume of our annual to our beloved principal, GENERAL WILLIAM S. RUMBOUGH, and hope that in this way we can show our appreciation for his leadership and kind understanding.

In Memoriam

DIED MAY 5, 1948

HE IS NOT DEAD — HE'S GONE BACK HOME

by Anne Harrison

The Master softly called his name,
The time drew nigh for him to roam
Unto the place from which he came.
He is not dead — He's gone back home.
He's found the promised happiness
In a land that knows no care,
He's entered into perfect bliss—
His heart will be untroubled there.
We'll miss the way his big blue eyes
Lit up with joy when he was glad;
We'll miss the disappointing sighs
That came whenever he was sad.
We will remember still each hand,
The way he walked, in boyish style,
The way he used to sit and stand,
The things he said, his friendly smile.

Recalling him will bring a tear,
His friends will often want to cry.
But just because he is not here
There is no need to say goodbye—
His spirit will still walk with us,
Comfort, help us, until when
Way up there he'll talk to us
And be among us once again.
We loved him and we want our friend
To always have the very best.
His earthly journey found its end
He's claimed his throne among the blest.
He is an angel in heaven today
And though he'll no longer roam
With us below, let's smile and say—
"He is not dead — He's gone back home."

SENIOR PROPHECY

The train arrived at 10:30 and as I walked into the station a billboard caught my eye. It was being freshly painted by an old classmate of mine, Bob Mills. The billboard stated in bold letters:

"Dr. Barber's Little Liver Pills, Take them and they'll cure your ills."

At the foot of the billboard stood Jean Knupp, a famous commercial artist sketching. I walked over to the magazine counter where I saw another old friend, Pat Potter. I asked her if she had a copy of the Falls Church newspaper edited by Ann Lyle. She handed me my paper and as I turned around I came face to face with Bill Duke, J. Edgar's left-hand man. Billy said his latest job was guarding Tom and Chip Porter, ambassadors from Upper and Lower Slobovia, respectively. As I walked out of the station I bumped into a blonde young lady carrying a hat box. At once I recognized her as Jayne Baker. She told me that she and Annette Bowman were modeling clothes designed by the famous dress designer, Pat Jarrett. I hailed a taxi, and was surprised to see a classmate driving, Larry Miller. I told him I wanted to go to Falls Church where I was going to meet some of the class of 1950, for the annual Falls Church-Fairfax football game. He told me the game was going to be played in the huge stadium designed and built by the great architect, Jack Baer. As I settled back in my seat I opened my paper and turned to the lovelorn column written by none other than Peggy Wood. Mike Jessen as usual was heading the gossip column. Next my eyes fell on an advertisement by Hogan's Haberdashery. It read:

"We can now offer you a complete assortment of Silliman's Argyles. Don't forget our slogan—'Silliman's socks are best by far, you'll always find them up to par. So buy the sock asked for again and again, the Argyle sock by Silliman.' Many new styles are now on display and are exclusively designed by Diane Cornwell and Eddie Frady."

Next I turned to the front page where I read about the coming election for mayor of Falls Church. Bill Fletcher is running for the third time and Jerry Belknapp is running for Water Commissioner. Admirals D. Caldwell and M. Corson are still conducting research on "How the Mighty 'Mo' got stuck in the mud." The Broadway review put on the top of its list, Betty Groah and Sheila Bell co-starring in "Short'nin' Bread," produced and directed by Barbara Berry. The author's corner quoted Bill Allen's book about "Puppy Love—It's A Dog's Life" as the year's best seller. In the line of educational books, "The History of White Plains" written by Doris Herbert was listed as outstanding.

The Society column featured the party of Helen Houston, millionairess, at her Riverside estate. Among those who attended were Tollie Hagood, wife of the famous atomic scientist and June Tunison, acclaimed interior decorator. Entertainment for the party was provided by the singing of three solos by Charles Ogden and then a couple of duets by Grace Boaz and Virginia Lane, blues singers from the Dardenelles. Also some drum solos by Bill Oates were enjoyed immensely. Next I turned to the sports page where I saw the pictures of Betty Appleton and Buddy Smith, voted the "Outstanding Athletes of the Year." When I arrived in Falls Church I got in touch with Jim Reece, the owner of the Falls Church movie chain. He had promised tickets to the 1950 alumni for the premiere of "The Inlaw" starring Jacqueline Shelton and Roland Blue, the Valentino of today.

We arrived at the movie. The house lights dimmed and the newsreel began. Flashing across the screen came the startling picture of Leon Perrell going over Great Falls in an orange crate. Next came the sports parade. Dottie Shepard, world champion swimmer, broke all speed records by swimming the English Channel in one hour. It was then announced that Herb Bowers had just captured the title as the Roller Skating champion of the world. We always knew he had talent. After the sports review came the Warner Pathe News; the main feature was a speech by Pat Bryson in Spanish. Carol Johnson translated it for her. Next came a personal interview with the charming young geneologist, Dorna Ingwalson. We enjoyed the movie immensely but we still had time on our hands so we decided to go back to school for old times' sake. We were surprised to find Peggy King teaching Macbeth and Bob Schindler teaching Civics. Also Elizabeth Lannier had started a French course. We were not surprised to find Benny Rouillard sitting near the door planning an excuse for skipping the next class. On the bulletin board was a list of the members on the Varsity team, starting with Leroy Cloud as water boy. Ethel Trout, now the Secretary in the office, told us that Charlie Poswell couldn't come as he was called out of town on an important law case. She also said that Janet Klunk and Nancy Miers had gone back to visit their old hometowns and wouldn't be here either. As we walked back through the hall we met Joe Mona, now a successful pretzel twister, who had just come back for the game.

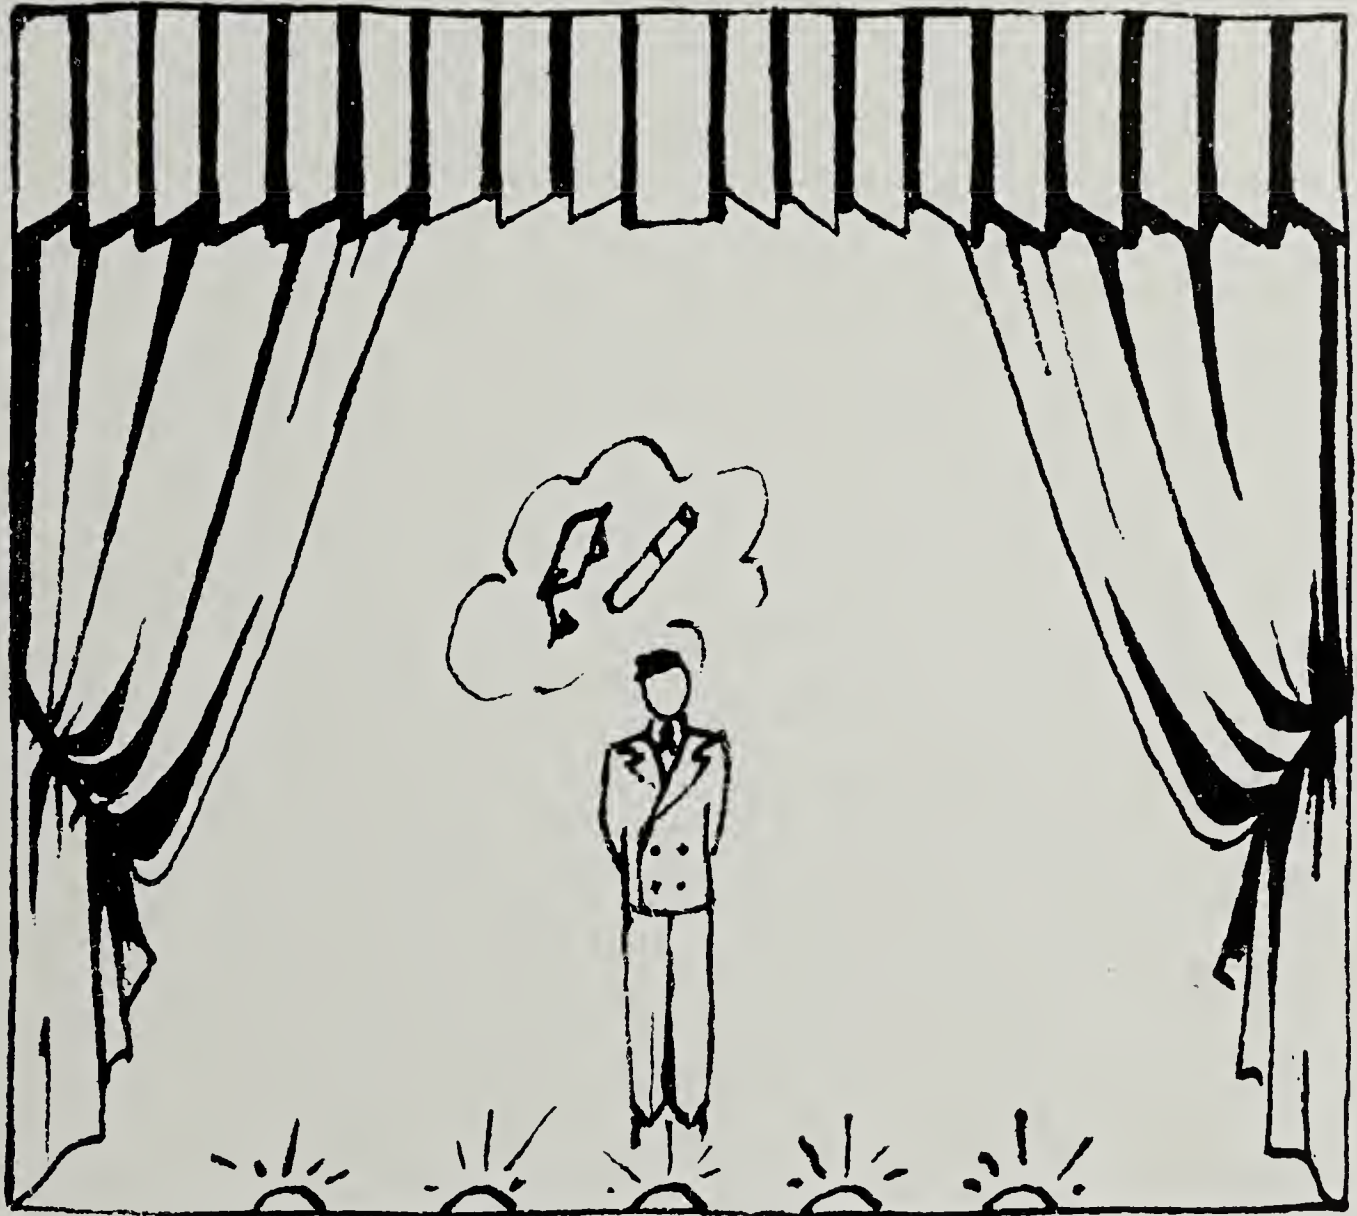

The time had slipped by so quickly that we just had time to eat and get back in time for the game. We made the mistake of speeding, and as we were cruising along at 70 MPH we heard a siren—it was Mary Ellen Sullivan—Chief of Police. Luckily Anne Lieber, famous lawyer was with us and talked us out of a ticket. On the way to dinner we picked up Charlotte Hite and Mollie Zettle. Charlotte said she now owns a bakery in Washington and Mollie is her chief cake decorator. Dinner was rather hurried but we got to the game in time to see Councilman Bill May throw the ball onto the field.

The game was very exciting, a tie of six to six at the half. Doctor George Gans and Nurse Charla Claxton were kept quite busy repairing the Fairfax team. In the last half we really played. Coach Devereaux was justly proud of his team. The final score was 21-12, our favor naturally. We really enjoyed the game but most of all it was wonderful to see the changes ten years had made in our old friends.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

CLASS of 1950

We, the undersigned, do solemnly bequeath these, our greatest attributes, to our most deserving underclassmen:

Bill Allen—Leaves his flirty eyes to James Beard.

Betty Appleton—Leaves her happy-go-lucky manner to Tanya Pruskin.

Jack Baer—Leaves his tenor voice to Richard Rumble.

Jayne Baker—Her executive ability to Don Glover.

Jim Barber—His Alpine hats to anyone who wants them.

Jerry Belknap—Leaves his personal deck to Noel Lynne.

Sheila Bell—Leaves her Southern charms to all Yankees.

Barbara Berry—Leaves her way with the teachers to Buddy Waters.

Roland Blue—Leaves his old school bus to Bobby Hayes.

Grayce Boaz—Her studiousness to Lily Altman.

Charlie Boswell—Leaves all of his trim figure to Bill Little.

Herb Bowers—His roller skating ability to Fred Landess.

ACT I SPORTS

1949 FOOTBALL SEASON

COACH TODD

September 10—Falls Church 0, Handley High 34

Falls Church got off to a poor start against a bigger, more experienced team from Winchester.

September 23—Falls Church 0, Fredericksburg 32

The Jaguars played on even terms in the first half but fell apart in the last half.

September 30—Falls Church 0, Manassas 6

A touchdown in the first quarter proved the margin of defeat as Falls Church lost a close one to Osbourn.

October 6—Falls Church 6, Mount Vernon 25

The Majors proved to be too powerful for Falls Church as they scored in every period to win.

COACH WEBER

Falls Church 20, Warren County 0

Falls Church scored a quick touchdown in the first period, and went on to whip Front Royal, 20-0.

Falls Church 6, Fairfax 0

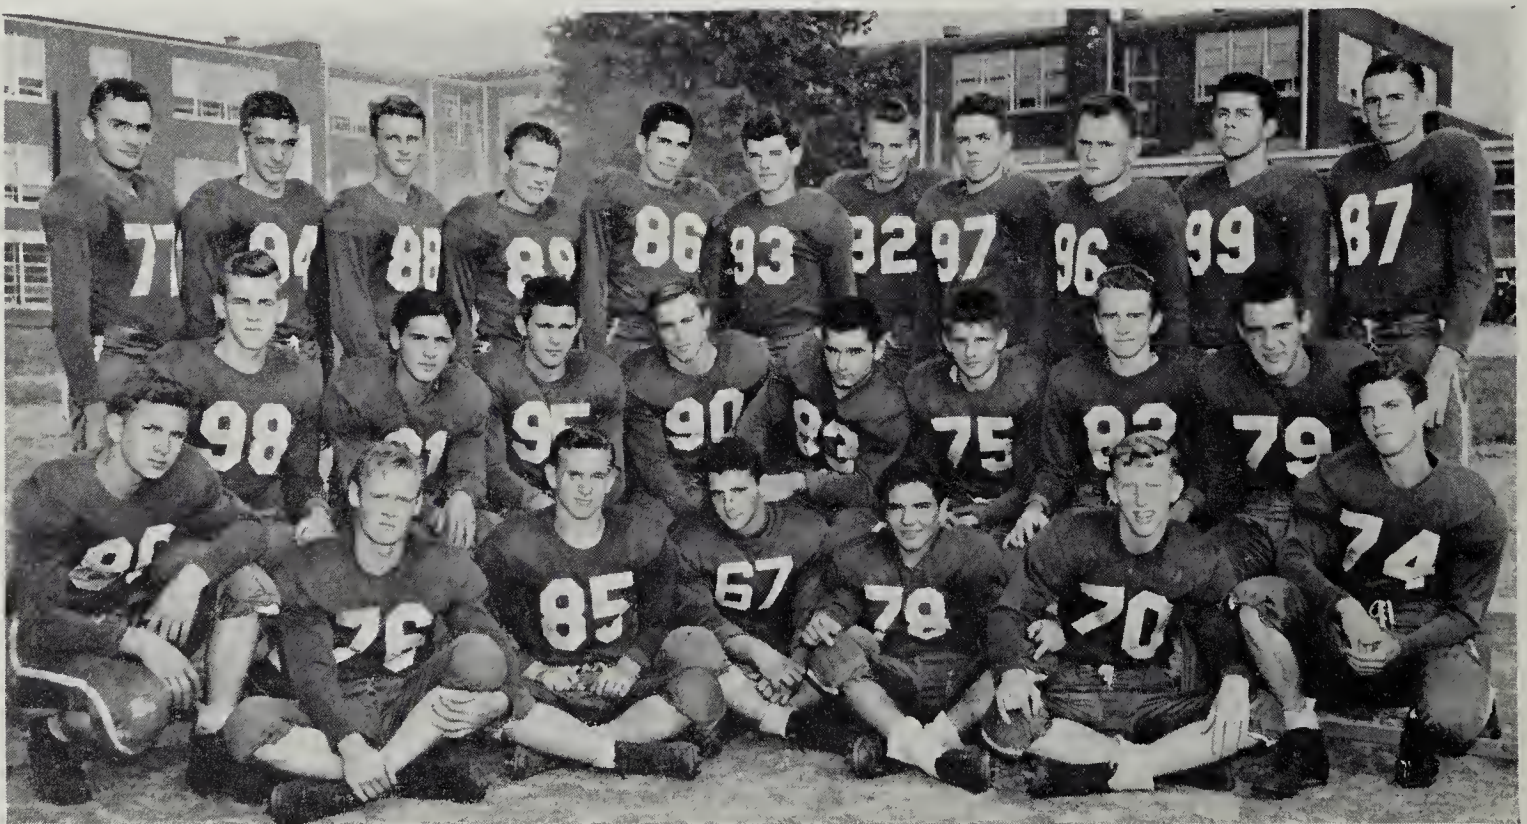

Before 4,000 screaming fans, Joe Trombo climaxed a 71 yard march with a ten yard off-tackle smash to give Falls Church a win over its traditional rival.

Falls Church 25, Falmouth 6

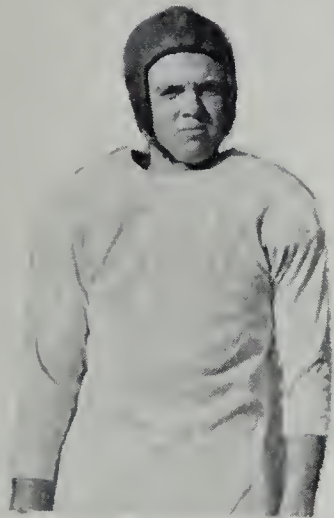

Falls Church slushed through mud and a driving rain to gain its third win in a row.

Falls Church 7, Lane 42

A completely outclassed Jaguar team ended their season by bowing 42-7. Lane scored in every period, but F. C. showed fight in the last minutes. Leroy Cloud carried off-tackle for 15 yards and a touchdown, Wayne Akre kicking the point.

HAWKINS

A YEAR AT FALLS CHURCH HIGH SCHOOL

SEPTEMBER

6—The creaking of rusty hinges sounded as F.C.H.S. opened her doors once more, and just when we were beginning to enjoy ourselves! S . . . a . . ay! Have you seen those cute new teachers?

13—Yea! team! Tryouts for cheerleading and our first pep meeting!

16—Falls Church played Handley High.

23—Class officer elections—"I'll vote for you, if you'll vote for me."

OCTOBER

6—Falls Church plays Mt. Vernon.

12—"A woman's advice is not worth much, but he who does not heed it is a fool." I knew I should have studied for that test.

21—Yippee! We beat Fairfax!

27—Why don't they have more of those teachers' workshops? This one gave us a two-day vacation.

28—Another victory! Falls Church beats Falmouth High.

29—Homecoming Dance. "Weren't those door prizes beautiful?"

NOVEMBER

5—J.V. picnic out at Ballentrae Estate. Hey, Barry! How was that dip in the creek?

9—Magazine campaign begins!

11—Holiday! Armistice Day!

18—Oh, well, we can't win all of the games. As was stated in the Jaguar Journal the score was ??? to ??? in favor of Lane High.

23—Grab yo' man, 'lil gal, 'cause the Sadie Hawkins Dance is here!

24—Thanksgiving Holidays!

DECEMBER

2—Candlelight and flowers means the National Honor Society formal initiation.

3—Football banquet. Wow! Just look at those cheerleaders!

7—Last day of 2nd report period. "Mr. Barret, may I go home? I feel ill."

20—The Glee Club sang for the lighting of the Community Christmas Tree. There was plenty of the Yuletide spirit, but the audience showed up missing!

22—At last! Christmas holidays! Wasn't the Christmas Formal wonderful?

JANUARY

3—These holidays do something to me, can hardly hold my eyes open.

4—Pictures for the yearbook being taken these days. "Well, all right, if you say so, but I think I look much more glamorous the other way."

11—Seniors measured for caps and gowns.

27—Opening of the ultra, ultra, Blue Note Cafe.

28—Variety Show.

FEBRUARY

10—"Sweetheart, Sweetheart, Sweetheart." You guessed it, The Sweetheart Dance.

22—Washington's birthday—holiday!

24—J.V. and Varsity basketball at Culpeper.

MARCH

3—Ouch! That splinter! Who invented these Sock Hops anyway? ? ?

10—The Senior Class presents, "One Foot in Heaven"—Which one? ? ?

17—St. Patrick's Day Dance.

25—One-act plays at Mary Washington. Jayne, we didn't know you could sing torch songs like that!

31—April Fool's Dance.

APRIL

1—As spring approaches more students sleep through more classes.

14—P. T. A. Carnival.

21—Eighth Grade Dance.

MAY

5—May Dance.

26—Junior-Senior Prom, "I'll see you in the morning, Mom."

JUNE

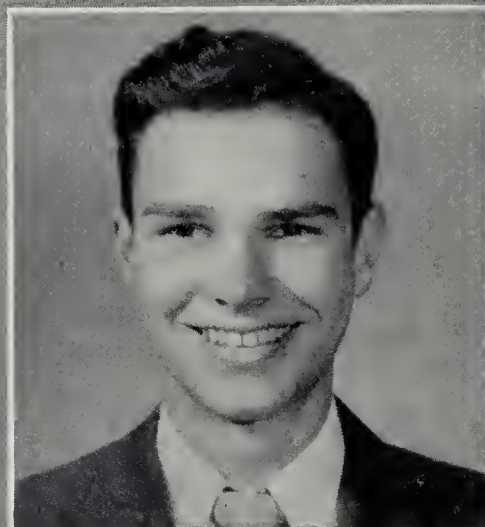

7—Senior picnic—ooh! my sunburn!

14—Graduation and we're alumni!
